Extraordinary, award-winning wines. A beautiful, unique winery steeped in the region's history. Welcoming surroundings. Nearby homesite communities like Viniterra with amenities now and more on the way. This is New Kent Winery. As you enter our picturesque winery, you'll immediately take note that this is a special, one-of-a-kind place like no other winery in Virginia. No wonder it's in demand as a unique setting for special occasions and reserved events.

We opened our doors in 2008 after eight years of planning, planting and building – all of which have resulted in some of the finest wines produced in Virginia by one of her most unequalled wineries.

Planting the first vines in 2001, our founders started molding reality from their dream of opening a winery in New Kent County, Virginia. From that beginning, we are now producing Chardonnay, Reserve Chardonnay, Merlot, White Merlot, Meritage, Vidal Blanc, and Norton - a grape native to Virginia.

Visitors Welcome: Tuesday through Sunday, 10am to 6:00pm

Saudé Creek is a privately-owned and operated vineyard and winery located on the Pamunkey River in historic New Kent County, Virginia. The mild climate and mineral-rich clay soils of the Virginia Tidewater contribute to our complex and food-friendly wines. Our winery site once boasted Frank's Tavern, a Colonial Inn and Publick House for wayfarers riding between points north or west and the Colonial capitol of Williamsburg. George Washington and the French General Rochambeau, among other patriots and notables of the time, reputedly slaked their thirst here. We at Saudé Creek invite you to do the same with our rare and excellent vintages. At our winery's beautiful new Tasting Room, tastings are $7 to sample all our fine wines, and include a Saudé Creek souvenir glass.

*Visitors Welcome: Wednesday - Monday, 12:00 noon - 6:00 pm.
We are closed on Tuesdays.*
